UNITED WE BUILD A STRONGER SOUTH ALABAMA

Opportunities to Volunteer

United Way Volunteer Connect is a recruitment and management website that increases volunteerism and mobilizes resources by offering opportunities for individuals and groups to volunteer.

Last year, 1,893 volunteer needs were met through Volunteer Connect, resulting in an economic impact of more than $311,497 in volunteer hours served.

Referrals for Supportive Services

Through a UWSWA partnership with Lifelines Counseling Services, trained United Way 2-1-1 Help Line call specialists provide individuals seeking assistance free and confidential referrals to community services.

In 2019, United Way of Southwest Alabama's 2-1-1 Help Line answered 12,420 incoming calls and provided 9,416 referrals to health and human services.

Prescription Savings Cards

In partnership with FamilyWize, UWSWA distributes prescription drug cards that provide savings for individuals who do not have insurance or need medications not covered by insurance.

In 2019, individuals in Southwest Alabama have saved more than $1,438,903 using the FamilyWize Prescription Savings Card.

Free Books for Preschoolers

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library program provides eligible children a monthly age-appropriate book in the mail, free of charge, until the child's fifth birthday.

Last year, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library provided a total of 6,570 books to 6,377 children in Mobile and Choctaw counties.

Free Tax Preparation

Through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program, UWSWA provides free federal and state e-filing assistance.

This year, SAFE Coalition VITA volunteers prepared 2,385+ tax returns and helped return more than $3,407,673 in tax returns and savings to our community.
