AMERICAN RED CROSS & UNITED WAY MEETING

Founder: Clara Barton, a famous Civil War nurse and humanitarian often called the "Angel of the Battlefield". [1, 2, 3]

Date: May 21, 1881 [1]

Location: Washington, D.C. [1]

Inspiration: Barton learned about the global International Red Cross movement while volunteering in Europe during the Franco-Prussian War. [1, 2]

Key Milestones

Geneva Convention: Barton successfully campaigned for the United States to ratify the Geneva Convention, which happened in 1882. [1]

Congressional Charter: The organization received its first official U.S. charter in 1900, giving it federally mandated duties for disaster relief and military support. [1]

Leadership: Barton served as the first president of the organization for 23 years, stepping down in 1904. [1]

If you would like, I can share more information about Clara Barton's work during the Civil War or the services the Red Cross provides today.
